One-Day Seminar on “Writing Skill: Special Emphasis on Research Papers and Research Grants” at Kamla Nehru College of Pharmacy, Butibori, Nagpur

One day seminar on “Writing Skill: Special Emphasis on Research Papers and Research Grants” organized by Kamla Nehru College of Pharmacy, Butibori, Nagpur on January 28th, 2019. The seminar was organized for teachers and PG students.

The seminar was inaugurated by Dr. Jagdish R. Baheti, Principal, Kamla Nehru College of Pharmacy, Butibori, Nagpur. The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Parimal P. Katolkar, Associate Professor and preamble was given by Dr. S. N. Umathe, Professor, Kamla Nehru College of Pharmacy, Nagpur.

The inaugural function was followed by two long sessions conducted Dr. D. M. Kokare, Professor, Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur. In the first session, Dr. Kokare talks on the writing skill for research paper. A proposal is a roadmap to the intended research work. A well written proposal signals clarity of a research idea and the research readiness of the researcher. The proposal should convey clearly the understanding of the research issue and objectives derived therefrom, including why it is being studied, how it will be studied, what methods will be used, what will be the contribution, characteristics of data, and sampling approach. A well thought-out and systematically written proposal is attestation to the researcher's aptitude.

In the second session, Dr. Kokare talks on the components of research proposal. The following components were suggested while preparing the proposal:

1. Introduction

Background to research topic

Statement of research problem

Significance of research

2. Literature review

A review of literature relating to or in periphery of research topic

Assess your research question/problem in context of literature surveyed

3. Methodology
