'Students of Vidarbha must be rightly trained to face challenges of life'

■ Staff Reporter

STUDENTS from Vidarbha region are talented. They are studious, but as they are not aware about the tough competition, they are lagging behind. It is therefore needed to train students to face competition in life, said Smita A. Wanjari, Treasurer of Amar Sewa Mandal on Tuesday.

Wanjari was delivering a presidential address of the concluding function of Aroma 2017 at the premises of Amar Sewa Mandal's Kamla Nehru College of Pharmacy, Butibori.

Wanjari stressed on soft skill development to achieve success in every field.

Dr. N. H. Indurwade, Principal, Manoharbai Institute of Pharmacy, Gondia was the chief guest of Valedictory function while senior Journalist Rajendra Diwe was the guest of honour. Senior Prof Dr S.N. Umathe and Principal Dr J.R. Baheti also shared their views.

Dr Indurwade spoke about the scope of Pharmacy field while Diwe appealed the students to achieve excellence in life. Dr S.N. Umathe gave some career tips. Dr J.R. Baheti made introductory remarks.

The four day event Aroma 2017 was concluded with prize distribution and alumni meet. More than 50 past students of the college attended the meeting.

Various events were held during four day celebration. The winners of different events were given prizes at the hands of guests.

The Aroma 2017, the annual event was earlier inaugurated at the hands of Dr. P. G. Yeole, Exo Vice Chancellor, RTM Nagpur University. This esteemed function was graced by Sumit Salunke, Site Head and T. Vijaykumar, Head HR Lupin Pvt. Ltd. All the guests emphasized the importance of soft skill development along with the knowledge enrichment. The other dignitaries present on this occasion were Adv. Abhijit G. Wanjari, Secretary, Amar Sewa Mandal, Dr. J. R. Baheti, Principal and Dr. S. N. Umathe, Professor, Kamla Nehru College of Pharmacy, Butibori.

Principal J R Baheti addressing while Dr P G Yeole, Adv Abhijit Wanjari and others look on.
